A Japanese artist made a copy of the Mona Lisa completely out of toast, on this day in 1983.

Your totally useless fact for today: Even if you cut off a cockroach's head, it can live for several weeks.

8th graders, Tri-Tech Summer Skills Academy is giving you a chance to earn high school credit. If you are interested, come pick up a flyer in the office!

There is a reward for finding a lost black T-Mobile Android. If found please bring it to the office.

Buy your yearbook now! Come to the office during lunch or before and after school. Cost is $15.

The last school dance is today.

21st Century participants, don't forget to turn in your permission slips for the field trip to Tri-Cities Court Club's Splashdown Cove.
